

V1 Workshop

Financial Centre Switzerland, the Climate Crisis and the Demands of Collective Climate Justice

The Collective Climate Justice (formerly Climate Games Basel) is organising a protest camp and days of action for climate justice for the third year back to back. This year the focus is on Swiss financial centres. What do Swiss financial centres have to do with the climate crisis? Why is there a need for grass-roots movements? What does Collective Climate Justice demand? Presentation and discussion on those questions.

V5 Workshop

Strategies for a Grass-Roots Movement for Climate Justice

Days of action and protest camps are important for climate justice. But to reach the goal of a climate-just financial sector, we will be in need of a long-term strategy. In this workshop you will have the opportunity to discuss ideas and specific opportunities for implementation with an experienced campaign-developer.

Payal Parekh, Ph.D. Environmental scientist, activist and strategy-developer for campaigns

V6 Workshop

Banks vs. Climate (in English with German translation)

This workshop will teach participants more about the role of private banks with regards to the climate crisis. Furthermore, tools will be introduced with which one can fight for fossil-free banks.

The workshop is a mixture of presentations about bank-campaigns and of group discussions. Participants have the opportunity to build on the work of earlier campaigns and on the experience of other activists. No experience is necessary to participate at this workshop. Furthermore, there will be a brainstorming concerning leverage on banks and effective tactics.

V7 Aktionstraining

Lock-Ons

How can I safely and effectively blockade a street, gate or crossing during a direct, non-violent action? What is a lock-on, what do they do and how do I use them? There will first be a short, theoretical introduction into the workings and applications of this blockading technique. Afterwards the technique will be tried and practiced.

V9 Presentation and Discussion

Climate strikes! Answers to the Impossibilities of a 'Green Capitalism'

The Climate-strike-movement may be the largest political youth movement in Switzerland since the protests against the Iraq War in 2003. The movement is being courted by a number of parties and groups that seem to have suddenly discovered their ecological conscience and now have their own suggestions to solve the climate crisis.

A close inspection of the suggestions of established parties and think tanks reveals how impractical or even counterproductive these recipes are. Neither electric cars nor new nuclear plants nor a CO₂-tax can end the climate crisis.

During this workshop, we'll discuss why there can be no 'green capitalism' and we'll give our own perspectives on how to escape capitalism.

V10 Workshop

Climate Crisis from an Eco-Socialist Perspective

Analyses and approaches to solution that are critical of capitalism

Christian Zeller, Professor of economic geography at the University of Salzburg and member of aufbruch-salzburg.org

V11 Action training

A successful and safe action demands good preparation. Thus, action trainings are a central tool of preparation. How do I behave in stressful situations, how do I keep an overview and what is a affinity group? What opportunities are there to still make decisions as a group once the situation becomes confusing and what must I desperately know before participating at an action of civil disobedience? Come to the action training and acquire your knowledge!

V15 Material for action

Creative support of the Days of Action

Paint banners, etc.

V16 Action plenary

Final, important information for a safe and assessable action will be made available at the 'Action plenary'. Final questions will also be addressed. Please make sure that at least one person of your affinity group is participating at the action plenary, so you're in the loop when it comes to important information. Let's cut of climate change's funding – climate justice!

Agents of financial centres and the 1.5°C goal

Financial centres are complex entities of different agents. In the face of climate-related risks their climate strategies are increasingly in focus. How do they look and are they compatible with 1.5°C goal?
